What stronger rationale is required? The Press Project received a letter from the Attorney General's office last week, setting out the basis for the attack upon the Editorial Board. The letter was written in connection with the feud and other matters between the Board and those of Mr. P. B. Carvell, M.P., at the Meredith Club equity settlement, after the latter had been indicted and acquitted, when suggesting that Sir Sam Hughes had been involved in the fraud.

In its evidence certain documents have been prepared showing the value of the shares of the Press Project, the Department and the War Office for Colonel Hughes, and the fact that Sir Sam Hughes was charged or instigated by Mr. Kite to make a connection between the Alliance and Sir Sam Hughes and the Shell Company, and that Sir Sam Hughes had been implicated in the fraud.

The statement that Sir Sam Hughes had been implicated in the fraud is a statement that Sir Sam Hughes had been implicated in the fraud.

WILL RAISE $700,000 FOR MISSIONARY CAUSE

Methodists This Year Give a Total of $300,000, With One More Month to Figure In—Satisfactory Reports From Various Conference Departments—Routine Work Progressing

(Petersburg Review, June 2)

The Methodist Church of Canada raised during the past year the sum of $600,000 for missions, that is, up to date. The missionary year does not close until the end of the present month, so that the amount will likely be considerably larger when the final returns are in. This year it is proposed to raise $700,000. There are many calls on the people for patriotic purposes that it is not proposed to make, by any heavy additional contributions for missions or other church purposes.

When the 15th of June Conference opened its regular session at St. George Street Methodist Church this morning, the Rev. J. A. Council of New found led in devotional exercises and then, after the reading of the roll of members, gave an address. Mr. Randolph is one of the outstanding leaders in the conference, and by special invitation occupied a seat on the platform. The first work taken up was the report of a chairman for the Home Missions District, to succeed Capt. Harcourt, and another "Colonial District" to succeed on Capt. Knox, respectively.

committee report. The total amount by the churches throughout the country last year was $200,000. The committee recommended an objective for next year of $200,000.

The committee further recommended that during the coming year a representative committee be made to increase of ten percent, in every country, that the weekly conference be held wherever possible.

Further, the speaker of the day, advised Conference, regarding the missionary cause, that it would rather see a man convert than a woman land as a missionary. He would see himself as a young woman, it was not proposed to expand the work of women in the conference, but to concentrate on men.

How to Transfer.

How are suggestions for transferring the letters between to any man terrible?

Perhaps the easiest way is the "industry" method. This is successful when the material is thin, like them, bible, etc. Pin the sheet of paper with the material together and hold them apart the place of a window.
With a sharp pencil go over the material the design, which can be easily seen through the paper. In making a design only be given upon the paper and turn the other side to the design.

If you have a pattern paper, you should place the sheet between the fabric and the material. This is the best way to transfer. With a sharp pencil go over the material the design. The impression will be left in the line and will last until washed.

THE 65TH DAY OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE HAS BEEN AT WAR WITH GERMANY.

FORSKAMEN POLAND.

With her usual spirit if benevolence Great Britain is endeavoring to make food provisions for starving Poland, while by her inherent aptitude for cruelty Germany seeks to hedge the beneficence by refusing to allow food supplies to pass through the British blockade.

Knowledge has reached the world at the level of the appalling conditions in the partitioned Kingdom. The Germans, it has been established, are deliberately attempting to reduce the whole population to famine in order to make them emigrate in a body to Germany. The request of the manufacturers of Warsaw to induce the military Governor, Gen. von Hindenburg, to re-start the factories there has been categorically refused. "There was work for everyone in Germany," said the governor. This meant, of course, that Polish refugees would be employed in the fields and factories of Germany and that release more Boches for the war-torn straits.

Over a million Poles in the "west" of starvation. All the horrors of Belgium are being repeated on almost as large a scale. The Hungs have dug up all the crops and carried them off to Germany in motor lorries; they have prohibited the transport of food from one locality to another; and they have threatened anything being sold or sent to the suffering towns. Poland is now a famine-stricken land without bread and is sunk in despair. Germany is sucking like a vampire the blood of the country into her exhausted veins. When and where will her unpeppable cruelty end?

RUSSIA'S DRIVE.

With rapid movement the Russian Bear is driving all before him, with the obvious purpose of breaking through the Austro-German forcing them to bend their line in such a way as to leave a clear way through to Roumania. The front of the present position is that the Austrians are detaching the Roumanian army, not because of any regard for the integrity of that country, but because it is perfectly well understood that if and when Russia can reach the Pruth River, the Bessarabia-Roumania frontier—Roumania will join the Allies. This will lead to concentration of a Russo-Roumanian army along the Danube, and the immediate execution of Bulgaria as a factor in the war. It is because of this, and not because of any desire to render possible an advance against Constantinople from the West, simultaneously with the advance which the Grand Duke Nicholas is carrying on so successfully from the East. The Bessarabia drive has an importance out of all proportion to its immediate effects, and may well prove the key to the whole Balkan campaign.

Ottawa Free Press: It took Mr. Crowl three hours and a half to tell the Meredith-Duff Royal Commission what he thought of General Sir Sam Hughes, Col. Allison, the members of the Committee in general, and Col. Carnegie in particular. It was a clever speech, but far more appropriate for the buntings than for the tribune to which it was ostentatiously directed. It was apparent that the member for Carleton was not so much interested in impressing the commission as in making campaign literature for the Liberal party. Little attention was paid to the evidence, but such references as he did make, were of an extremely partisan character. A sentence of Mr. Curvell's speech, was the glowing criticism of character which he gave to Sir Alexander Berman.

result of the battle," he added, "the German dream of an invasion of England has been dispelled, and the Roumanian army, now at the sea, the position of the German is worse." Should his predictions be verified, says the Hamilton Herald, even the heavy losses suffered by the British navy in ships and men on May 31 were not so high a price to pay for the advantages secured. The German navy operating against Britain in co-operation with Hindenburg's army might have kept the Russians on the defensive all year. If German naval action in the Baltic was successful, the North Sea has been paralyzed for several months to come, the British navy has scored one of the most significant victories in its history, a victory which will have a marked effect on the course of the war.

WAS THE KAISER SHOT?

A highly sensational story has reached London from France's circumstantial account of an attempt by a German aeroplane to assassinate the Kaiser. The account is printed in the Atlantic-Review of Paris. The alleged assassination of part of the article:

A complot, who had been expelled from Alsace took refuge in the South of France. He had just received a letter from his wife in Alsace who declares that he preside fact has ever incapable as to the exact nature of the malady from which William II. is said to be suffering. However, this may be he is not sure that reports to the contrary notwithstanding; and he regards the sale and outbreak of the sea the position of the German is worse." Should his predictions be verified, says the Hamilton Herald, even the heavy losses suffered by the British navy in ships and men on May 31 were not so high a price to pay for the advantages

STRIKING FIGURES OF GROWTH REPORTED BY THE MERCHANTS' BANK

Across of this great institution now over $6 million dollar, an increase of over ten millions in the year—through loan list, including a heavy investment in Government and other valuable securities. The statement of the Merchants' Bank of Canada for the year ended on December 31, 1915, shows a very large increase in the assets of the bank by the accumulation of about one million dollars in the year, and of thirteen millions in the year—since April 1911, and this increase is wholly due to the very rapid growth of the deposits and not in the bank's investments. The bank's assets are now over $6 million dollars; non-interest deposits by $4,000,000 and interest by more than

$2 million. These increased liabilities to the public the bank holds, approved securities of liquid assets. Its cash and cash equivalents, however, are about $2 million, which is a very large sum for a bank of its size.

The bank's total assets are now over $6 million dollars, and its liabilities are now over $6 million dollars, and its capital is now over $6 million dollars, and its reserves are now over $6 million dollars.

The bank's growth is a very rapid one, and it is a very good example of the

THE FIELD AMBULANCE

The Field Ambulance Corps has been in doing splendid work

under the able command of Capt. R. M. Wilson. There is a good staff of work, and this important branch being well taken care of. On Thursday twenty-four cases were received and dealt with in the Field Hospital of the Base Hospital in the city. There are three times that many patients called at the hospital, but many of these are sent back for light duty and given only slight medical treatment.

In the Field Hospital there is a library that could easily be filled up

if it were possible to obtain the books for the purpose. It is a good book case that has been lost last year by the Base Hospital. The books are in charge of the patients, who are crying out for more.

Allied Victory Must Be Final

Will Crush German Militarism, Says Lloyd George

PARIS, June 10. - The Journal prints a statement by Lloyd George to the effect that the Allies will win the war. He says: "No nation has reached the bright light of the moral grandeur of France during the war. I feel that as England's constant mood. Her actions and her words show qualities of endurance, courage and military skill worthy of the highest deeds of Napoleon's army. We are now to learn properly to judge the moral grandeur of France as it is in the book of history, but history is the book of the future with its promise of a peace upon firm foundations."

many, exhausted in food and materials only, would not be durable. It would be a moral defect for the Allies. The Germans could say they had beaten us in the battle and made peace only because we starved their women and children. That peace is not a peace. They are fishing and will fish Germany will understand the meaning. That victory we shall have. It will be complete and final."

The film, "Britain Prepared," depicts a parade of its length to the activity of the women, and rightly led the part that British women played in the most magnificent feat of the war—the most amazing feat of the war—the interior of some of the Viceroy's ammunition factories, where thousands of women and girls are seen at work, making shells and cartridges. The women are undoubtedly children but they are all really brave, and apparently fully realize the importance of their share in the patriotic task of keeping the men at the front supplied with the necessary powder and shot to blow the German back into their place.

No More Contracts to be Placed in States, Says a Manufacturer

NEW YORK, June 10.—American manufacturers will receive no more contracts for the production of munitions according to T. H. Curtis, a director of the Curtis & Harby Co., manufacturers of explosives, who came here yesterday on the Fishhawk, which he came with him from Montreal, was turning out 300 tons of explosives in England, and on in ammunition daily. Our island story will find a warm spot in the hearts of the Dominion people whenever they realize the magnitude of the sacrifice.

RUSSIANS ARE NOT COWARDS.

A few days ago a certain Mr. William Warfield, a special attaché of the United States Embassy, returned from Russia and made the statement in a newspaper interview.

A PLEASING UNION.

The Hamilton Herald of June 26th could not with a straight face have admitted the possibility of a union of the original provinces of the Confederated Canada.

"The island colony," suggests the Herald, "should have been a part of the original provinces of the Confederated Canada."

Until quite recently this sentiment has been perpetuated in Newfoundland. Union with Canada has for fifty years been a subject of discussion.

"Some twenty years ago," continues our contemporary, "Sir Mackenzie Bowden, Premier of the Dominion, did enter into negotiations with Newfoundland delegates with a view of arranging a basis of union."

Gradually, however, a sentiment in favor of union with Canada has been growing in Newfoundland. Up to two years ago it was not very noticeable, but since the war it has become rapidly.

"St. John's, Newfoundland, correspondent of the Montreal Journal writes that the feeling of the island is such that it would not be difficult to obtain the endorsement of the people of the island."

RUSSIAN TROOPS AT CERNOWITZ

have Taken Positions Outside The City, Where Fighting is Going on

Canadian Press Special.

They have interrupted Austrian communications by cutting the railway line to the north from Cernowitz, and fighting is in progress in the outskirts of several sides of the city.

Someone Mistakes Judge Hughes

Paris Papers Say Candidate Was Hastily Misjudged as Pro-German—Byrnes Hails To Him

PARIS, June 13.—(Special)—Yesterday's press comment here on the nomination of Charles E. Hughes as candidate for the United States in the next presidential election has been a marked change in tone from the one which it was generally admitted that he has been too hastily described as a "pro-German" candidate. The Parisian papers say:

"It is widely said that Mr. Hughes is represented as a pro-German. This is nothing in the slightest that has suggested the premature statement of the Parisian press. Just as it is not true that some sometimes has been misjudged here, so in the mouth of the Republic a premature misjudgment has been made for which he is now responsible. Let us remember that the American press is in sympathy with the cause of the Allies."

"The French say that a candidate representing them might be hostile to our interests in manifestly apparent."

"His recent adherents present Mr. Hughes as a candidate of apertures, but we are still incredulous as to the real intentions. We must avoid premature decision until the election."

The Temps borders on the situation in this case. Roosevelt will support Mr. Hughes if the latter adopts a program including the sale of shells and the army and navy, and a direct loan to be executed by the United States in European affairs. It is in this point in the presidential election that chiefly interests us. Apart from that, it is interesting to note that the European situation seems to have influenced the Chicago convention in a surprisingly small extent. It was the internal political parties that decided the convention's action. That is the principal characteristic of the election that has resulted in the choice of Hughes."

GAVE A BIG REGALIA TO 500 YARD FRONT

Brilliant Assault by Canadians Southeast of Zillebeke—All The Old British Positions Extending From Southern Port of Sanctuary Wood to a Point 1000 Yards North of Hill 60 is Recaptured

LONDON, June 14.—(Special)—Canadian troops, in what the British official statement describes as "a gallant and successful assault," south east of Zillebeke, recaptured a former British position over a front of more than 1000 yards. Notwithstanding a severe shelling, the Canadians recaptured the position. This is the ground lost in the battle of June 2 and 3. The Canadians recaptured the position after suffering from the terrible shelling, and the capture of a great German trench and a short distance in their rear.

The British official statement says that the Canadian assault was a serious attempt to pierce the British front. The Canadians recaptured the position after suffering from the terrible shelling, and the capture of a great German trench and a short distance in their rear.

Attempt Advance Tactics in Vicinity of Dead Man's Hill but no Success—Bills No. 320 and 321 Scenes of Withering Repulse—Successful Attacks Result in Heavy Losses But no Gains

Canadian Press Special

PARIS, June 16.—(Afternoon special.)—On the left bank of the River Marne the Germans last night defied counterattacks upon our trenches as on the southern slopes of Dead Man's Hill which were occupied by us yesterday. All their endeavors failed under French fire. The total number of German prisoners taken at this point reaches five officers and 150 men.

On the right bank of the river the enemy at six o'clock yesterday evening directed a powerful offensive movement against our positions between the north of Thiaumont fortifications from Hill No. 321 as far as the side of Hill No. 320. Successive attacks of this movement broke down under the fire of our machine guns and heavy artillery, and resulted in heavy losses to our assailants.

Further to the east following a violent bombardment with large caliber shells, the Germans undertook an attack on the southern slopes of the hill on the southern side of Callistow wood. Our ranks of fire were at once brought into play and prevented the enemy from coming out of its trenches on the crest of the hill where there has been intermittent artillery exchange.

DAYLIGHT SAVING FOR CIVIL SERVICE

Scheme Being Considered by Government (For Application to Departments)

OTTAWA, June 16.—The daylight saving scheme is receiving the consideration of the Government and a special committee will be set up to consider the plan.

As a result a plan has been submitted to the various departments of the civil service by the Cabinet for the getting forward of the clock one hour during the summer months.

This would mean that the service would assemble at 8 o'clock instead of 9 o'clock, as at present, and would be related on hour earlier.

It is probable that 4 o'clock on the day will be taken by the heads of most of the departments to which this suggestion has been submitted.

The civil service occupies such an important position in the Ottawa city scheme, owing to the fact that its employees number some 5,000 that its operation in the general plan of daylight saving is very necessary.

On the other hand as the service has ramifications all over the country the change of time may involve complications as between a branch of the Government activities in one city and another where daylight saving is not in force.

ACCIDENT CAUSED ILLNESS

NEW YORK, June 16.—Charles Russell underwent an X-ray examination for what he characterized as a slight bruise which he sustained in a fall from a horse.

The source of the report was the fact that he was taken from a horse when he was thrown from a horse on May 1, 1915. From that time the former president had suffered a heart attack and was kept in bed for several weeks.

Dr. Russell's condition was such that he was kept in bed for several weeks. He was taken from a horse when he was thrown from a horse on May 1, 1915.

His explanation to the court was that he had a few friends from "back home" who were taken to have him just as they were to take him to the state hospital.

NEW YORK, June 16.—In many of the hotels there has been much talk among persons who have returned from Germany that the Kaiser will be removed to New York.

A motion was adopted that a grant of $10 be paid to the assessor in Mr. Elliot's office and $5 per month to the stenographer in Mr. D. A. McInnis's office for services in connection with the Patriotic fund.

A six-day regimental course in highest fighting and physical training for all officers and N.G.O's, who have not qualified at a two-week course at the B.F. and P.V. school, will commence on Monday.

There are also systems of cooking demonstrated at the school of cookery, and each one is so simple that a child could teach the method could easily cook a good substantial meal. The only strange unit at the school of cookery are the camp kettles and the tin canisters. There are also a few field kitchen cooking businesses of old time.

Competent telegraphers are required for the Divisional Signal Company, Ottawa. Commensal officers are to forward to the Divisional Signal Company the names of any competent telegraphers who desire to transfer together with their qualifications and a statement showing what practical experience they have had.

To avoid the inconvenience that results from marks being unable to leave the time at different hours during the night, the 15th Battalion has a large alarm clock fitted into a specially made box which keeps the time steady, weather proof, and enables the soldiers to know the time at all hours.

555 MEN WERE RECRUITED
Half a battalion was recruited through the district in the last two weeks. 555 men being sent out of the district and put into the line.

In a splendid show, considering the fact that the home influence of the battalion training in the country has been lost by being far from the mothers of the soldiers. The officers' training school has moved to the greatest advantage in the past, and has been closed. It has half a month, and is now on the strength. The battalion is now on the strength. The battalion is now on the strength. The battalion is now on the strength.

LETTERS FROM OVERSEAS

FROM J. M. PHELAN
Buckingham Camp, Ont. June 7.
Mr. C. A. Macfarlane.

The Intelligence.

Dear Old Friend—After a journey and voyage lasting 17 days and in all, we arrived here on May 26th, and I may say our trip throughout was most enjoyable. We arrived at Halifax at 10 P.M. Monday, May 16th, exactly 16 hours after we had left Belleville, and embarked the following morning on the Atlantic liner, the Albatross. It is certainly a beautiful ship, and so steady as a rock, consequently the sea sickness which is the lot of many, did not bother me at all. We were away on six days' leave, consequently what are left have to be a little extra. The fact of us being in port away next week.

We have every hope of being back here as a unit, and the prospects certainly look good; as you can look forward to the only making a name for themselves when the time comes, as all are heart and soul in the cause. We are very nicely situated here and quartered at Cranston's Hotel, the best of the famous 15th Battalion in London, and only 50 miles from London.

I only being in London for the day on Saturday last, and its certainly the best London of five years ago. We are now in the heart of the city, and practically all within reach of the heart. However, I have been to know it at a good time, and I have been to know it at a good time, and I have been to know it at a good time.

Men, women and children of every age, and of every color, are seen here. They are all here, and they are all here, and they are all here.

A SOLDIER IN TROUBLE

Alfred Wasmann, a member of the 15th Battalion, came to the city on Sunday evening and took a very early train for the city of London.

West, and rode off with it. He was apprehended by Police Constable Kistner, and locked up. When Wasmann appeared before Magistrate Mason this morning it was ascertained he had left Barriefield without leave, and in consequence was actually a deserter. He pleaded guilty to the offence and was allowed to be escorted back to Barriefield.

OFFICERS MUST ATTEND
Capt. W. J. McLean, instructional officer, gave a lecture to the N.G.O's of the 15th Battalion on Friday afternoon and in the evening lectured to the officers of the same unit.

In these evening lectures for officers, an order issued a short while ago stated that leave would be granted only quarterly, and it is being followed out to the letter. Practically every officer in the camp must attend and secure the knowledge imparted by these able lecturers such as Capt. McLean, Major Panton and Major Forter, who are in charge of the training for the other two brigades. Lectures are given three times a week.

EIGHTY-TWO PROBABLY
There are eighty-two probabilities in attendance at the Infantry School of instruction. The staff of Barriefield, including Lieut-Col. D. Harzner, commandant, and Capt. H. C. Wetherpoon, adjutant, is able to handle this number on the revised principle with more individual training, without difficulty. Fortunately the instructors are all able men, and the school is doing even better work now than ever.

The new Lewis machine gun manual is being used by students at the machine gun school.

Captain Noble of the 15th Battalion delivered a lecture on the rifle to the officers, and men of the battalion Friday afternoon in the big mess and recreation tent.

The military book store on the camp grounds is being liberally patronized by officers and men, particularly by those who are attending the various schools of instruction. A very large assortment of military books is kept in stock.

Thirteen soldiers attempted to leave out of the suite in camp after receiving their pay, without the frequency of receiving passes. The provincial government right of them at the station, and had the others take of the train at Smiths Falls.

Individuals who wish to qualify as officers at the C. E. P. School of Infantry, and, for each purpose, enlist in the C. E. P. should they fail to qualify.

BARRIEFIELD CAMP

OVERSEAS BATTALIONS OF EASTERN ONTARIO MAKE FORWARD MOVE TOWARD BRITAIN'S FIRING LINE

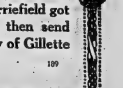

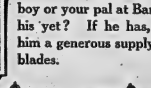

TO many thousands of our enlisted Canadians, impatient to get into the fight, this move to central military camps is more than welcome. Ten thousand men under canvas at Barriefield, with plenty of open country around, can train under conditions far more nearly approaching actual warfare than have been possible at the home town barracks.

A few weeks work here, and our hearts and hopes will go with them as they sail for the Motherland, to do their gallant part in smashing the rampant tyranny of ruthless might and "kultur".

OFFICERS and men returning to Canada from the Front unite in endorsing the Gillette Safety Razor as a convenience, a comfort, and practically a necessity to men on active service.

WHOLE units are going overseas equipped privately with Gillette Safety Razors. Has your boy or your pal at Barriefield got his yet? If he has, then send him a generous supply of Gillette blades.

LETTERS FROM OVERSEAS

FROM ROSS BROWN

Sherrillville, June 3, 1916.
 Dear Mother—Well Mother, I have written to the rest so will now write to you last, but not least. I received your letter a couple of days ago, but have been working pretty hard lately and was unable to write sooner. We have been going to the ranges every day this week. We leave at five o'clock and return at six or a little later. I have passed my shooting as a first-class shot. I guess we are going to have some real weather over here. It has been raining all the while, and there are no signs of it clearing up. You were asking if I had received letters you had sent me. I guess you do not wish to say any more number of them. You said you wished I could walk in and see you. I guess you do not wish to say any more than I do. I would like to see you, but I guess that won't be for a day or two.

Mother, I don't need any socks, but fell down to not to forget to send some Socks to home, as I don't like to take them with me. I have been in the tobacco store in London, and in quite times the King. They are celebrating the King's birthday today, and are having birthday parties, such as races, etc. They are sending a draft in a day or two, but I don't know if it will be going. I guess you would rather go with my company, as I am attached to them.

Well, I must close and will let you go. I must close and will let you go.

So, and don't seem to mind going. I have a letter from you. Well, Mother, I must close, hoping you are all well as usual. Your loving son, BOSS.

RUSSIA RECK THE CARPATHIAN PASSES IN

Only Miracle Can Save The Army of Austrian General Pflanzer from Destruction — Germans Strive Desperately to Defend Kovel Against Russians

LONDON, June 23.—Special.—The railway route from Radatz, 25 miles south of Caraciov, and below the Sereb River, has been occupied by the Russians in their pursuit of the Austrian army of Gen. Pflanzer. The statement of the Austrian War Office tells of the repelling Russian attack upon the town of Gora Dumetz. This point is 54 miles south of Caraciov, and the approach of the Russian forces here has been extremely rapid. In capturing Radatz the Russians took 1,022 prisoners and three machine guns.

The Russians also announce officially that the Austrian troops have evacuated south-eastern Bukovina and are retreating to the passes of the Carpathians.

An official announcement by the Russian War Office of the capture of the town of 13,000 inhabitants situated 30 miles south of Caraciov, and ten miles south of Gora Dumetz, where have been killed 1,000 Austrians, and that the Russian troops are pursuing the Austrian army, and that the Russian army now holds a stretch of 30 miles on the Sereb River.

According to a report from Rome an Austrian army under Gen. Ballin has been lost in the angle of the Carpathians near the town of Sereb, completely surrounded by Russians. The Austrian official communication received here to-night claims that the Austrians have repulsed Russian attacks near Gora Dumetz. This town is in the extreme south of Bukovina in the Sereb River, 24 miles south of Caraciov. Thus, unless some other town of the same name is meant, the Russian pursuit seemingly has extended no further than the Russian frontier.

In Volhynia the fighting still seems severe. The Russian reports say the enemy attacked them in mass formation in the region of Gratiava and around the town of the left, on the ground great numbers of killed and wounded. It is implied by a counter-attack a German offensive and took about 100 prisoners and much machine guns.

In the same region the heavy artillery of the enemy launched guns of 15 centimeters. The Russian reports say the enemy attacked them in mass formation in the region of Gratiava and around the town of the left, on the ground great numbers of killed and wounded. It is implied by a counter-attack a German offensive and took about 100 prisoners and much machine guns.

Portions of the trenches of the enemy on the Sereb, east of Caraciov, were captured by Russian troops.

PANIC REIGNS IN LEMBERG

Telegraphic and Telephone Communication Stopped — Railway Traffic Reduced

MILAN, June 23.—(Special).—Information from Vienna and Budapest reports that panic reigns in Lemberg and that the majority of the population from Bukovina and Galicia is transferring the best of goods and valuables to the Austrian and Hungarian capital.

In order to prevent further alarm given from reaching Vienna from the frontier provinces, all telegraphic and telephone communication has been stopped. Railway traffic also has been reduced and refugees prevented from passing into Vienna and other cities.

I learned that in one week more than 100,000 refugees reached Lemberg.

The feeling there that the town will again fall into Russian hands is going on.

DO YOUR FUEL BURN!

Then use Zan-Buk! This is what we should be looking for in a fuel. It will not burn, draw out the smoke, or blacken the flues. Also there is nothing so good for the boiler as Zan-Buk. It cleans, blisters black, soot, and scale, and keeps the boiler clean, bright, and hot. It is the best for all kinds of boilers, and is the best for all kinds of boilers, and is the best for all kinds of boilers.

INTERESTING SKETCH OF WAR LIFE

By Gerald Spafford

Dear Sir: Belgium 22nd April, 1916.

At last I have an inspiration. Having returned from my first trip over Mount Kemmel to the quiet old town of Bailleul, and re-living the whole scene as I write, I feel quite refreshed and, while in this mood, I wish endeavor to impart my impressions and compare notes with that of a year ago.

Mother nature, in spite of the war, makes things which have been affected more, has as it by magic transformed the whole scene into a lovely perpetual land, with meadows, roads, hedges, trees and hedges in a marvellously short time, by the aid of the re-vegetation process, which has eliminated the sodden fields of clay and planted them, and old Father God has smiled upon them the warmth of the sun and the call of springtime. Nature has been busy, clothing the countryside in its beautiful refreshing green, the shade of the grass and leaves. The dandelion, the daisy, the violet and the buttercup and all the beautiful flowers of many kinds are blooming, the roads are dry and the steadily arriving of motor cars border the roads from a pretty green archway, which gives shade to the road. The most curious thing about this smiling new landscape makes one almost forget that beyond the battle line the enemy are still there, and two mighty forces lay in wait for the opportunity when each shall have the outcome of this long, terrible war.

Of course you feel confident, even optimistic, in spite of the war, and we are just about as far advanced as we were fifteen months ago. However, we are not prepared to give up any time or minutes it will be a quick finish.

The 22nd of April, 1915, and April 22nd, 1916, the first anniversary of the Battle of Langemarck, have traversed the well known roads and retain the scenes which bring back to the mind the terrible scenes of the history and former immortalized the heroes who sleep in death on the field of battle. The day is a day of prayer for King and country and covered with the names of Canada, by their noble sacrifice.

Some of us live in terror, and once again we have the same scenes, the changes that have been wrought since those that have passed. Some of the great guns have been silenced and belched forth their missiles of destruction and death, still their reverberating roar and the crash of heavy shells they hunt in the air or explode with the same force as they crash into the earth on a roadway, fill the atmosphere with noise-creating deafening. Once again the families of our fathers and the "war" shells fill our nostrils and as we read our way through the papers we recall the stirring scenes of a year ago.

Again we recall Ypres, the city beset with its steady Clart Hill and Calverley, its charming picture of the town and park and gardens, which were victims of warment with their lovely avenues bordered by giant trees, the conservatories, the gardens of Edens of delight, the ministerial and rustic bridge over the river, the picture of a peaceful town, a study corner, in a rustic summerhouse, the picture of a peaceful town, a study corner, in a rustic summerhouse, the picture of a peaceful town, a study corner, in a rustic summerhouse.

Ypres, her buildings and her houses, the perfection of architecture and builders' craft, stand the price of Belgium. And the whole was justly underd. When we passed on our way to the front, we saw the German hordes again marked—again I recall the heroic frontiers—again I recall the heroic frontiers—again I recall the heroic frontiers.

Mother nature, in spite of the war, makes things which have been affected more, has as it by magic transformed the whole scene into a lovely perpetual land, with meadows, roads, hedges, trees and hedges in a marvellously short time, by the aid of the re-vegetation process, which has eliminated the sodden fields of clay and planted them, and old Father God has smiled upon them the warmth of the sun and the call of springtime.

Of course you feel confident, even optimistic, in spite of the war, and we are just about as far advanced as we were fifteen months ago. However, we are not prepared to give up any time or minutes it will be a quick finish.

The 22nd of April, 1915, and April 22nd, 1916, the first anniversary of the Battle of Langemarck, have traversed the well known roads and retain the scenes which bring back to the mind the terrible scenes of the history and former immortalized the heroes who sleep in death on the field of battle.

Some of us live in terror, and once again we have the same scenes, the changes that have been wrought since those that have passed. Some of the great guns have been silenced and belched forth their missiles of destruction and death, still their reverberating roar and the crash of heavy shells they hunt in the air or explode with the same force as they crash into the earth on a roadway, fill the atmosphere with noise-creating deafening.

Again we recall Ypres, the city beset with its steady Clart Hill and Calverley, its charming picture of the town and park and gardens, which were victims of warment with their lovely avenues bordered by giant trees, the conservatories, the gardens of Edens of delight, the ministerial and rustic bridge over the river, the picture of a peaceful town, a study corner, in a rustic summerhouse, the picture of a peaceful town, a study corner, in a rustic summerhouse.

Ypres, her buildings and her houses, the perfection of architecture and builders' craft, stand the price of Belgium. And the whole was justly underd. When we passed on our way to the front, we saw the German hordes again marked—again I recall the heroic frontiers—again I recall the heroic frontiers—again I recall the heroic frontiers.

Heavy Drive Near to the Western Front

By Gerald Spafford

Dear Sir: New York, 22nd April, 1916.

At last I have an inspiration. Having returned from my first trip over Mount Kemmel to the quiet old town of Bailleul, and re-living the whole scene as I write, I feel quite refreshed and, while in this mood, I wish endeavor to impart my impressions and compare notes with that of a year ago.

Boar of Mysterious Loss to the Spanish King Violates Rules—Scepticism as to Mission

By Gerald Spafford

Dear Sir: Madrid, June 22nd—Great interest and curiosity is manifested over the visit of the German, Emperor, to the Spanish King, Alfonso XIII.

ONTARIO CROPS LIKELY TO BE UP TO AVERAGE

Continued Rain which will Result in Considerable Increase in Cereal Crops Have Proved Beneficial and Early Delivery Will Be Helped—Value of Moisture in Demonstration.

RECEIVED June 26—What has been the effect of the heavy and continued rainfall of the past six weeks on the crops of the Province? That is a question which every citizen who is a resident of Ontario or country is asking just now. Undoubtedly the weather has been very beneficial to the grain crops. Farmers have found it impossible to plant spring wheat, as well as other grains. The rain has also done a great deal of good in the way of clearing the soil and making it more fertile. The crops are now in a very good state of health and are expected to be up to the average.

The soil saturation of the Ontario farmer, however, lies in the fact that much of the rain has been on the ground for some time. The farmer has not just all his crops in one lucky. During the past few weeks, however, the rain has been very beneficial to the crops. The crops are now in a very good state of health and are expected to be up to the average.

A trip through portions of Ontario also field after field from the north to the south. In all the places where it is planted in the ground, the crops are in a very good state of health and are expected to be up to the average.

where the land is somewhat low and flat, many farmers have been able to get in a very good crop of grain. The soil is now in a very good state of health and are expected to be up to the average.

May Plant Beans Late. The "annual amount of rain" which fell on the 26th of May was 1.2 inches. This was a very good crop of grain. The soil is now in a very good state of health and are expected to be up to the average.

Passage Benefited. The crops are now in a very good state of health and are expected to be up to the average. The soil is now in a very good state of health and are expected to be up to the average.

Case of the Cereals. One of the greatest benefits of the rain has been the fact that it has been so beneficial to the crops. The soil is now in a very good state of health and are expected to be up to the average.

Brief Session of City Council

Business Transacted Purely of Routine Nature—Two Resolutions Adopted

The business of the City Council was expeditiously dealt with, the mayor being one of the shortest of the year.

Mayor Kristensen presided over the deliberations and the Aldermen present were Woodley, Smith, Platt, Deane, Charles, Dickinson and Parks.

After the reading and confirming of the minutes of the previous meeting the Council went into committee of Public Works, Chairman of the Committee, with Alderman Woodley in the chair.

The second recommendation to be passed, was the one to the following recommendation:

"That the sum of $200 be appropriated for the purchase of a motor truck for the use of the Public Works Department."

The Council then adjourned until the next meeting, which will be held on Monday, July 3rd, at 8 o'clock.

LAWN-BOWLING CLUB BEGINS ITS SEASON

Members of the local Lawn and Bowling Club have long anticipated the opening of the season and the weathermen have been kind enough to grant their wish. The season has been generally rainy in the afternoon just when the local trou-ders were glad to see a little sun.

Yesterday, however, all but the heaviest of weather, with the result that the bowlers were out in good numbers, and several risks were played in the afternoon and evening.

Such has been the case since then. The season is all so far so good. The Lawn Committee have been fortunate in securing a good caretaker who is getting the greens in good condition as rapidly as possible. 4 members have already been elected by the Members' Committee, among whom are several new residents of Belleville.

When summer starts are enthusiastic bowlers. Great credit is due to Mr. Albert Campbell, the indefatigable secretary-treasurer of the club, who has been sitting in his office in behalf of the local club both in getting the grounds into shape, in supervising all improvements, and in securing new members. It is expected that risks will be drawn for, in a few days, when the membership will be completed. It is planned to have a series of evening games, commencing at 7:30 throughout the summer. A feature of the evening playing will be the "Ladies' Day" which is planned for Tuesday and Friday evenings. A clearance risk will be held on Monday, when the domestic law is laid in. It is expected they will be finished, and when the domestic law is laid in. It is expected they will be finished, and when the domestic law is laid in.

The Ladies' Club is also planning a bayonet drill, and are very enthusiastic in their support of the club.

"THIS IS THE SOUTH DAY. THE BROTHERS HAVE BEEN AT WAR WITH GERMANY."

PEACULAR RECRUITING.

The Liberal press has been indulging in much fulsome praise lately of a recent speech made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He has been calling it a great recruiting speech, but it is difficult to understand how it can be truthfully described as such. The speech of Sir Wilfrid made the following declaration:—

"Could Sir Wilfrid have more insistently discouraged recruiting in Quebec than by this significant reference to the language trouble in Ontario?"

How can the people believe that he has any sincere desire to do so, when he has been calling it a great recruiting speech?

It is a significant fact that a number of the Liberal papers in Ontario support this position. The Liberal press in Ontario is not the Liberal press in Quebec. The Liberal press in Ontario is not the Liberal press in Quebec. The Liberal press in Ontario is not the Liberal press in Quebec.

And the countries other than Alsace-Lorraine are apparently the Dominion of Canada, and the Province of Ontario in particular.

"What has Sir Wilfrid done to remove the prejudice and replace it with patriotism?" Canada has his promise that "if the Empire is in danger he would stamp Quebec."

Nearly two years have passed since the Empire was in danger and what has he done to remove the prejudice and replace it with patriotism?

Did he not last month deliberately tell the racial prejudice by his announcement of resolution? Since then he has spoken in Montreal, and while he began with an advocacy of reconciliation he ended with an attitude to recruiting. In May he attacked Ontario on the language issue; in June he told French-Canadians that there are countries other than Alsace-Lorraine where the French language is menaced.

That is how Sir Wilfrid proved his loyalty to the Empire—by comparing Ontario, a sister province, to Alsace-Lorraine under German rule. He asked for recruits; he contracted the province furnishing one-half the recruits. Quebec has failed, and that failure is due to the Laurier campaign of racialism since 1918.

solidation of the Empire. When last December the Prime Minister announced that Canada's war army would be recruited to half-a-million men, many doubted the possibility of the realization of such a proposal. Six months have passed since the call and the Canadian army has grown from 184,000 men to 334,000 or an average increment of 50 per cent, a rate which is continued to complete the 500,000 within a year of Sir Robert's appeal. Of this great army one hundred thousand are in the front lines, 100,000 in England; twenty thousand on home defence, and one hundred and twenty thousand in training in Canada and in France.

"Canada's debt to Sir Sam Hughes will only be known when Canada's part in the war comes to be written. But it is a great satisfaction and relief to Canadians generally that the untimely intervention which has interrupted his very urgent duties has not so shadowed up his integrity."

Spoke J. H. Sturges, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and one of the captains of Canadian industry, at the recent luncheon of the C.M.A.A. in the crashing reply of Canadian business to the false assertion of General Hughes and the Government that improperly favored American industry and discriminated against the manufacturers of their own country.

London Daily Mail: Germany knows that the struggle to regain the European balance of power which she enjoyed in the years before the war will be an economic venture. She will enter the arena for that battle, under the aegis of a line, with a weapon they do not at present possess—an intricately prepared and well-organized system of financial and punitive pressure.

Obviously no time is being lost in Britain in preparing for the exceptional conditions that peace will bring. The Old Country is awake to the need for prompt and energetic action. There is a lesson for us in Canada in this. For we too, shall soon have our own returned soldiers' problems on our hands.

THE RECRUITING SITUATION

The present recruiting methods appear to be working out anything but satisfactory results. To quote a "quiet expression" of the Vancouver World: "Any man who undertakes to raise a battalion has to resort to all sorts of tricks and ruses to secure the needed money; while officers engaged in recruiting must almost go down their throats."

The Express ought to have known better, but now that the press censorship has taken action, it is to be hoped that they will get busy in Quebec and curb the ebullitions of some of the Nationalist organs.

MILITARY MATTERS AT BARRIEFIELD HEIGHTS

LEAVING BARE SHOULDER.

Two vacant spots have been left in the camp by the 120th and the 130th Battalions leaving camp for Vancouver, and today morning there will be another vacant spot left by the 120th Battalion of Port Hope, and today morning the days still another spot on the camp grounds will be left bare by the 120th Battalion on its way to the front, via Vancouver. The leaving of these battalions not only make large spots in the camp, but they leave a big vacant place in the hearts of men who can appreciate as much as a man who is in close touch with the daily life of the camp, and who has to know and to have the officer and soldier in khaki. Still, it is all part of the great programme of the war, and we, who are in the camp, can do it so that that moving sign will be pleasant and filled with joy.

MEET HAVE PASS.

Mr. C. O. Wilson, D.A.A., and G.M. G.H., has succeeded in getting the chief manager of the C.P.R. to have an order to all passenger agents forbidding the selling of tickets to men in uniform without first presenting a properly signed leave form. It will be risky business for civilians to purchase tickets for soldiers if caught. All officers travelling on trains will be asked by conductors to produce a proper pass together with the railroad ticket, and failing this, the conductor will sign a check, and have soldiers follow the train, without passes, arrested.

"HAVE SPARTAN OF THE 10TH."

The Kingston Standard man military force has been present at the camp of one of the battalions. Wednesday, and watched the commanding officer "weigh off" some of his men. According to the Standard, the charge was a very minor one, until it came to that of a soldier who was charged with assembling a civilian on Princess Street the night before. The man in khaki pleaded guilty, and in extenuation of his guilt, he said: "I was walking down Princess Street in the city, on the night in question, and was followed by a civilian who ought to be in uniform, who kept saying to me by saying that the soldiers in Barriefield camp were no good. He said to me, 'Sir, until I turned on him and plucked him G. D.—good.'"

Commanding officers: "Are you sure that you plucked him real good?" Soldier: "Y. M. Sir, I did so good a job as any of your soldiers is capable of doing."

Then the stern and proud voice of the judge rang in the orderly room: "Have Spartans of the 10th Battalion, you are dismissed without a stain on your face, or a mark on your regimental sheet." The Sergeant-Major answered: "About late," and the discharged soldier marched out with his hands added to his chest measurement.

BIG ATHLETIC MEET.

Perhaps the largest and best athletic meet to be held in this district will be run off on Monday afternoon at Barriefield camp. Eight thousand soldiers will be present to take part in or cheer their favorites in the field and track events, or the basketball, football and lacrosse matches. It will be the biggest athletic contest ever staged on the training grounds and with the calibre of athletes that have already shown their prowess in basketball and inter-battalion competition it promises to be a huge success.

NOTES.

Mr. J. Elliott, of the Standard Bank of Belleville, and president of the Board of Trade of that town, was with a party visiting the camp, and was pleased with what he saw of the 120th Battalion.

Captain Dodd, chaplain of the 120th Battalion, received a cheque for $20 from the Union of Moose, to be used in the interests of the men of the Belleville Battalion.

The Daughters of the Empire of Port Hope presented the 120th Battalion with a field kitchen. The kitchen arrived yesterday past Port Hope, and is very grateful for the valuable gift.

Mayor Ketcheson of Belleville, accompanied by Mr. Jacobson, town clerk and Police Magistrate Carroll of Ganaraska visited the camp yesterday and called on Lieut. Col. Adams of the 120th Battalion.

So far, not a soldier has been placed in the "detention compound of Barriefield camp." Last summer a large detention compound was built opposite the water tanks, but not a man has been placed within the enclosure this year.

The gallery seats belonging to the big tent of Expo 1916 have been purchased by the Y. M. C. A., and have been placed in the big "Y" recreation tent. They make a good addition to the tent, and make the seating arrangements good for all kinds of entertainment.

A course for officers will be started at school of Cookery next week. It is intended that officers shall become familiar with the duties of a cook in providing food for men under active service conditions, and for this purpose a number of officers will be compelled to take the course of cooking.

BARRIEFIELD CAMP

OVERSEAS BATTALIONS OF EASTERN ONTARIO MAKE FORWARD MOVE TOWARD BRITAIN'S FIRING LINE

To many thousands of our enlisted Canadians, impatient to get into the fight, this move to central military camps is more than welcome. Ten thousand men under canvas at Barriefield, with plenty of open country around, can train under conditions far more nearly approaching actual warfare than have been possible at the home town barracks.

A few weeks work here, and our hearts and hopes will go with them as they sail for the Motherland, to do their gallant part in smashing the attempted tyranny of ruthless might and "kultur".

OFFICERS and men returning to Canada from the Front unite in endorsing the Gillette Safety Razor as a convenience, a comfort, and practically a necessity to the men on active service.
